

July Program with Sue & Anne-Lise

Sue Bagge and Anne-Lise Whitescarver will be leading an exciting program on July 28th. Anne-Lise recently attended the 10th annual North America Sogetsu Seminar in Hawaii and Sue attended the Seattle I.I. Chapter's 60th Anniversary event. They will enlighten everyone by sharing their respective experiences. Sue will share photographs from an Ikebana demonstration by Master Koka Fukushima and from the Seattle Japanese Garden, among other with a focus on movement and will include one of two themes.

Arrangement for Someone Special and Self Expression Through Flowers.

How? Choose a theme and bring a container, supplies, and materials/flowers of your choice. The cost of the workshop is $5. Please RSVP to Claudia Allison by July 24th: callison1117@gmail.com.

Where? St. Louis Park Library located at 3240 Library Lane, St. Louis Park, MN 55426.

When? Sunday July 28th from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. A brief business meeting will be held prior to the program, which will begin at 1 p.m. There will be a short intermission for tea and snacks between the program and the flower arranging.

Volunteers are needed to bring a food item, please. If you can assist, reach out to Claudia Allison: callison1117@gmail.com. Thank you in advance!

Don't miss this interesting and informative program!

Movement in the Sogetsu school is defined as a verb of movement: to rise, climb, roll, jump, bounce, turn, run, etc.
