CHAPTER 121 UPDATE

MINNEAPOLIS / ST. PAUL

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Dear I.I. Friends,

Spring is officially here, but during these unprecedented times it is difficult to celebrate the new season as we try to adjust to the new normal in our lives. Your friends at I.I. are here to support you. If you are unable to leave your house and need groceries or other supplies, please reach out*. If you have other needs, please let us know. Sometimes just talking to someone helps quell fear and anxiety.

While most of us are staying home and practicing social distancing due to coronavirus precautions, we can still create and do things that bring us peace and joy. You may have more time to do Ikebana. If so, and if you can't visit a local nursery or flower shop for materials (or if you can't find anything in your garden) challenge yourself to use unconventional materials (remember Jenny Sun's mum arrangement at Como last year made with brussel sprouts?). What's in your garage or basement that can be used? Consider sharing your creations with us.

Until we can gather again, please stay safe and healthy.

*If you have any needs, please reach out to Anne-Lise
Whitescarver or Myrna Little:

The spring haze.
The scent already in the air.
The moon and ume.
